

Things to do:

Play:

- Hike
- Canoe
- Needlework
- Read
- Games and cards
- Creative arts
- Sing
- Rest

Sacred space:

- Informal
- Guided
- Community circle

What to bring:

Casual clothing
Tennis/hiking shoes
Bedding or sleeping bag
Pillow
Towels
Toiletries
Flashlight
Notebook, pen, paper

Optional:

Personal reading materials
Needlework, etc
Musical instruments

The Reconciling United Methodists of Oregon-Idaho (OI-RUMs) are people working for full inclusion of all persons into the United Methodist Church. The group meets bi-monthly at various places around the Willamette Valley and offers resources to local churches and to the annual conference.

OI-RUMs is affiliated with the national Reconciling Ministries Network. Learn more about RMN by visiting <RMNetwork.org> Contact the Oregon-Idaho group at <OIRUMs.org> or <OR_ID_RUMS@yahoo.com>

Safe spaces
for
sharing our stories

An adult retreat for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender persons, families, and friends.

September 24 – 26, 2010

Suttle Lake Camp
near Sisters, Oregon

Register at www.gocamping.org
Or complete and send in the form
in this brochure

A time for:

Sharing and listening

Making new friends

Spiritual renewal

Play and relaxation

A beautiful, renewing and fun place to gather with new and long-time friends for relaxation, sharing and reflection. Time for solitude and community, time for FUN – you remember fun!

With the theme of “Sharing our Stories”, there will be time for personal sharing, film and conversation, writing and other forms of creative story telling.

This will be a time for finding solidarity and empathy as people of diverse sexual orientations. There will be time for outdoor fun and spiritual renewal

Sponsored by Oregon-Idaho
Camp and Retreat Ministries
and Reconciling United Methodists

For more information or to inquire about Camperships
(financial assistance)
Contact Karen Crooch, Dean
kord05@msn.com

Safe spaces for sharing our stories

Tentative Schedule

FRIDAY

- 4:30 Registration begins
- 6:00 Dinner
- 7:15 Introduction to story telling
- 8:30 Free time
- 9:30 Bedtime story

SATURDAY

- 8:30 Breakfast
- 9:30 Many forms of telling our stories
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:00 Free time
- 4:30 Reflection time
- 6:00 Dinner
- 7:00 Our stories intertwine
- 8:45 Campfire and free time
- 10:00 Bedtime story

SUNDAY

- 8:30 Breakfast
- 10:00 Where would you like your story to lead?
- 12:00 Lunch and departure

Registration Form

Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

E-mail _____

Male Female

Roommate preference _____

Special needs _____

Payment

Event fee: $125 per person

Make checks payable to: Conference Treasurer

Mail registration and payment to:

Camp Registrar
1505 SW 18th Avenue
Portland, OR 97201

To pay by credit card, you may register on-line at: www.gocamping.org or call the camp registrar at 503-802-9210

For further registration information, contact Geneva Cook, 503-802-9210 or e-mail questions to “camping@gocamping.org”

Register online at www.gocamping.org