Morning Program Tracks

Camp Health Care Providers

Are you serving in a camp infirmary this year? Learn the ins and outs of camper medications, emergency response in the camp setting, and working with families to meet campers' needs.

Infant & Child CPR

Learn how to save a life! Participants will earn CPR certification from the American Red Cross.

Safe Sanctuaries

Learn how to prevent, recognize, and respond to child sexual abuse. This training is highly recommended by the United Methodist Church and required by the Episcopal Church for everyone who works with children or youth.

Theological & Biblical Reflections on

Breakthrough 2 New Life

Get ready for summer by digging into the 2010 camp curriculum! You'll explore Scripture and learn how to lead Breakthrough activities with multiple age groups.

Afternoon Workshop #1

Working with children with special needs

We want our camps to be a welcoming place, a safe place, and a respectful place, to everyone. How can you prepare for a child with special needs in your camp.

The Games

Circle games ☞ Icebreaker games.
Large-group games. ☞ Small-group games.
Ten-minutes-to-kill games. ☞ Zero-setup games.
Zero-equipment games. ☞ Sporty games.
Artsy games. ☞ Music games.
Theater games. ☞ Bouncy games.
Reflective games

Enough said.

The first 2 hours of camp and the last 2 hours of camp

How do you set the stage for what is to come? How do you say a meaningful good-bye? How can you welcome the campers and make them feel part of the community? Learn how to make every minute of camp count.

Afternoon Workshop #2

Music, Music and more music

Camp songs are remembered long after camp is over. How can you make music a memorable part of your camp? Learn how to lead and teach songs, plan campfires, and create a musical theme for your camp.

Unplugging our youth

In this world of tweets, texts, mp3s and more, how do we get our youth to unplug, unwind, and understand God's love? Learn some suggestions on how to pull the plugs out of the youths ear's.

How to fill your camp

Without campers we cannot have camps. Learn tried and true methods of getting kids interested in your camp, as well as some new ideas for publicity. Share what has worked for you, and get new ideas to fill your camp.
